ADDENDA.

Will of William Paine.

THE last will and testament of the original immigrant ancestor, and American father of the line, of which a general account has been given, on page 72, is regarded as a document of too much interest to his descendants to be omitted here. The following is an exact copy, except that the spelling of the words is changed to conform with modern lexicography.

WILL.

I, William Paine, of Boston, having been for a long time by the hand of God, much exercised with infirmity of body, yet in perfect memory, do make my will.

Unto Hannah, my wife, £200, and my dwelling-house, situate in Boston, with all the out-houses, orchard, gardens, &c. ; also, my mill at Watertown, with the houses, lands, &c. ; also, all my household stuff, the use and improvement of it for life.

Unto my three grand-children, which were the children of my daughter, Hannah Appleton, deceased, the sum of £1500, viz., to Hannah, £600, to Samuel, £500. and to Judith, £400. And if any of my said grand-children depart this life leaving no issue, then the said legacy or legacies shall remain to them that survive and their heirs forever. If they depart this life, leaving no issue, then my will is that the said £1500 be repaid back unto my son John Paine, to him and his heirs. Said legacies shall be paid unto my grand-children as they shall attain unto age, or upon the day of marriage. I give to Hannah Appleton, my said grandchild, all the household stuff that now standeth in the hall chamber, to remain to her after my wife departs this life. The rest of my household stuff I give unto the other of my grandchildren, after my wife's decease.

I give unto the children of Simon Evers, Sen., deceased, viz.: Benjamin, Mary, Rebecca, Christian, Ann and Dorothy, £5 each. To Simon Evers, the son of Simon Evers, Jr., deceased, £5, to be paid when of age. Unto my sister Page, £3 per year during life. Unto my kinsman, John Page, which now is in his hands, the sum of £5, and to the other children of my said sister Page, viz.: To Samuel, Elizabeth, Mary and Phebe, £5 to each. Unto the children of my sister Hammond, viz.: To John, Elizabeth and Hannah, £5 to each. To my kinswoman, Elizabeth House, daughter to Samuel and Elizabeth House, £10. Unto the two daughters of my cousin John Tall, 40s. to each when of age; unto my son-in-law, Samuel Appleton, £10; to William Howard, £15; to Jeremy Belcher, 40s.; unto Mr. Anthony Stodder, £10; unto Christopher Clark, £10; unto Mr. Joseph Tainter, £10; unto Oliver Purchess, £10; unto Mary Ingion, 40s. yearly during life.

I give unto the Free School of Ipswich, the little neck of land at Ipswich, commonly known by the name of Jefferies Neck, the which is to be and remain to the benefit of the said school of Ipswich forever, as I have formerly intended, and therefore the said land not to be sold nor wasted. I give unto the College at Cambridge, £20, the which is now paid for that end into the hands of the worshipful Mr. Thomas Davenport, of Cambridge, and shall remain in the hands of the Committee and President of the College, and by them for the time being, and their successors after them forever, employ said £20 for the benefit of said college. But the said £20 not to be expended, but to remain as a stock to the college forever.

I give unto my reverend friends, viz. : Mr. Norton and Mr. Wilson, pastor and teacher of the church of Boston, 40s. to each; to Mr. Sherman, pastor of the church at Watertown, to Mr. Brown, pastor of the church at Sudbury, to Mr. Cobbitt, pastor of the church at Ipswich, to Mr. Fisk, pastor of the church at Chelmsford, to Mr. Phillips, teacher of the church at Rowley, to Mr. Mayhew, pastor of the new church of Boston, 40s. each. All the rest of my estate unto my son John Paine. If John depart this life leaving no issue, nor children of said issue, then my will is that the houses and lands which of right do belong unto me, within the bounds of Ipswich, with the privileges, etc., I give unto the children of my said daughter Hannah Appleton, deceased, namely: Hannah, Judith and Samuel, or so many of them as shall be then alive as co-heirs to the same, to them and their heirs forever, according as there is provision made in a deed of gift, formerly given unto my son John Paine. If John depart this life leaving no issue, nor children of said issue, then my will is that the children of my sister Page, mentioned above, shall have out of my estate the sum of £300. to be equally divided between them. If my wife should depart out of this life, before myself, then my will is that the children of Simon Eyres, Sen., deceased, shall have £5 apiece added to their former £5. and the children of my sister Page and sister Hannah, shall have £5 apiece added to their former £5.

I do hereby earnestly request Oliver Purchess to be helpful to my son, John Paine, concerning the Iron Works and the accounts thereof, whose abilities and faithfulness I have had experience of, unto whose care I do commit the said accounts.

I make my son, John Paine, my son-in-law, Samuel Appleton, and Mr. Anthony Stodder, my executors; and I do request Mr. Christopher Clark, Mr. Joseph Tainter and Mr. Oliver Purchess to be my overseers and feoffees in trust of this, my will. My will is, that if my said overseers, with my executors, shall see just case for some pious use and necessary work, to give £100. they shall have power to take it out of my estate. 2 Oct., 1660.

WILL. PAINE. (Seal.)

Postscript. I give unto Dr. Clark, £5. and I do give to Capt. Thomas Clark Company to buy their cullers. the sum of £5.

In presence of us,
JOHN MAYO,
CHRISTOPHER CLARK,
WILL. HOWARD.

14 Nov., 1660, Mr. Samuel Appleton appeared before the Court, and declared by reason of his remote living, and inability to manage such a trust, he did renounce his executorship of the will. Also, Anthony Stoddard, on request of Mr. John Paine, son of the late William Paine, did renounce his executorship to the will, which was done before the probate of the will.

EDWARD RAWSON, Recorder.

14 Nov., 1660, John Mayo, Christopher Clark and Wm. Howard, deposed.

Said legacies shall be paid unto my grand-children as they shall attain unto age, or upon the day of marriage. I give to Hannah Appleton, my said grandchild, all the household stuff that now standeth in the hall chamber, to remain to her after my wife departs this life. The rest of my household stuff I give unto the other of my grand-children, after my wife's decease.

I give unto the children of Simon Eyers, Sen., deceased, viz.: Benjamin, Mary, Rebecca, Christian, Ann and Dorothy, £5 each. To Simon Eyers, the son of Simon Eyers. Jr ., deceased, £5, to be paid when of age. Unto my sister Page, £3 per year during life. Unto my kinsman, John Page, which now is in his hands, the sum of £5, and to the other children of my said sister Page, viz.: To Samuel, Elizabeth, Mary and Phebe, £5 to each. Unto the children of my sister Hammond, viz. : To John, Elizabeth and Hannah, £5 to each. To my kinswoman, Elizabeth House, daughter to Samuel and Elizabeth House, £10. Unto the two daughters of my cousin John Tall, 40s. to each when of age; unto my son in-law, Samuel Appleton, £10; to William Howard, £15; to Jeremy Belcher, 40s. ; unto Mr. Anthony Stodder, £10; unto Christopher Clark, £10; unto Mr. Joseph Tainter, £10; unto Oliver Purchess, £10; unto Mary Ingion, 40s. yearly during life.

I give unto the Free School of Ipswich, the little neck of land at Ipswich. commonly known by the name of Jefferies Neck, the which is to be and remain to the benefit of the said school of Ipswich forever, as I have formerly intended, and therefore the said land not to be sold nor wasted. I give unto the College at Cambridge, the sum of £20, the which is now paid for that end into the hands of the worshipful Mr. Thomas Davenport, of Cambridge, and shall be and remain in the hands of the Committee and President of the College, and by them for the time being, and their successors after them from time to time and at all times forever, employ or cause to be employed the said £20 for the benefit of the said college. But the said £20 not to be expended, but to remain as a stock to the college aforesaid forever.

I give unto my reverend friends, viz.: Mr. Norton and Mr. Wilson, pastor and teacher of the church of Boston, 40s. to each; to Mr. Sherman, pastor of the church at Watertown, to Mr. Brown, pastor of the church at Sudbury, to Mr. Cobbitt, pastor of the church at Ipswich, to Mr. Fisk, pastor of the church at Chelmsford, to Mr. Phillips, teacher of the church at Rowley, to Mr. Mayhew, pastor of the new church of Boston, 40s. each. All the rest of my estate unto my son John Paine. If John depart this life leaving no issue, nor children of said issue, then my will is that the houses and lands which of right do belong unto me, within the bounds of Ipswich, with the privileges, etc., I give unto the children of my said daughter Hannah Appleton, deceased, namely: Hannah, Judith and Samuel, or so many of them as shall be then alive as co-heirs to the same, to them and their heirs forever, according as there is provision made in a deed of gift, formerly given unto my son John Paine. If John depart this life leaving no issue, nor children of said issue, then my will is that the children of my sister Page, mentioned above, shall have out of my estate the sum of £300, to be equally divided between them. If my wife should depart out of this life, before myself, then my will is that the children of Simon Eyres, Sen., deceased, shall have £5 apiece added to their former £5, and the children of my sister Page and sister Hannah, shall have £5 apiece added to their former £5.

I do hereby earnestly request Oliver Purchess to be helpful to my said son, John Paine, concerning the Iron Works and the accounts thereof, whose abilities and faithfulness I have had experience of, unto whose care I do commit the said accounts.

I do hereby make my son, John Paine, my son-in-law, Samuel Appleton, and the said Mr. Anthony Stodder, my executors of this my last will and testament and I do hereby request and empower of the said Mr. Christopher Clark, Mr. Joseph Tainter and Mr. Oliver Purchess to be my overseers and feoffees in trust of this, my last will and testament. My will is, further is that if my said overseers, with my said executors, shall see just case for some pious use and necessary work, to give £100, they shall have power to take it out of my estate for performance thereof. In witness to these presents as my real and considerate act, I have confirmed the same by my hand and seals this second date of October, 1660.

WILL. PAINE. (Seal.)

Postscript, I give unto Dr. Clark, £5, and I do give to Capt. Thomas Clark Company to buy their cullers, the sum of £5.

In presence of us,
John Mayo,
Christopher Clark,
Will. Howard.

I give unto the Free School of Ipswich, the little neck of land at Ipswich. commonly known by the name of Jefferies Neck, the which is to be and remain to the benefit of the said school of Ipswich forever, as I have formerly intended, and therefore the said land not to be sold nor wasted.
