Dick:

Would you please email or fax a copy of the proposed document for the Feoffees? My clients know nothing more about the contents than they have read in the local papers. I had recommended that they stay out of the discussions until a final version was available for comment. Today's paper makes it sound as if you've reached that point.

I don't believe there will be any significant comments from the Feoffees, but I presume that the process will go forward more smoothly if they endorse the document.
