

Ipswich Chronicle

IPSWICH, MASS., SATURDAY APRIL 18, 1891

Report Of the Feoffees of the Grammar School.

Received from Rent of land under houses on Little Neck to Dec. 31, 1890	$112.50
Received from Neck Rights	$ 36.95
Received from rent of School Farm in Essex year ending March 1890.	$46.67
Interest of City of Lynn Bond.	$200.00
Received from Brocklebank, rent of house and barn, Little Neck.	$50.00
Withdrawn from Savings Bank during the year.	$65.00

Total Receipts	$511.12

Paid Sundry Bills.
Insurance Policy	$32.00
Paid C.A. Strong on account of his salary year ending June, 1890	$200.00
Paid W.B. Clark, work	$7.00
Paid Foster Russell, work	$86.20
Paid John Doyle, work	$4.50
Paid C. Damon, outside windows.	$11.28
Paid Theo F. Cogswell, paint, paper hanging, etc.	$18.84
Paid G. Brocklebank, repairs	$7.10
Paid Sundry small bills.	$3.97
Deposited in Ipswich Savings Bank.	$140.23

Total	$511.12

The fund is invested as follows:

2 house lots in Revere,	value	$1000.00
26 23 Old Rights, Jeffries Neck	value	$1000.00
Little Neck with present improvements	value	$3500.00
School Farm, so called in Essex		$1000.00
Water bond, city of Lynn		$4000.00
Deposited Ipswich Savings Bank		$839.27

Total fund		$11,339.27

Feoffees of the Grammar School,
By Theo. F. Cogswell- Treasurer

A true copy, attest:
Charles W. Bamford – Town Clerk
April 13th, 1891