

CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT FOR REGULATING THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL IN IPSWICH, IN THE COUNTY OF ESSEX, AND FOR INCORPORATING CERTAIN PERSONS TO MANAGE AND DIRECT THE SAME.

Preamble.

Met. 584, 594.

WHEREAS divers piously disposed persons, in the first settlement of the town of Ipswich, in the county of Essex, granted and conveyed to feoffees in trust, and to such their successors in the same trust as those feoffees should appoint, to hold perpetual succession, certain lands, tenements and annuities by them mentioned, for the use of school-learning in the said town forever; of which feoffees John Choate, Samuel Rogers, Aaron Potter and Francis Choate, Esqrs., are the only survivors; and whereas the said town of Ipswich did also, in their laudable concern for promoting learning, about the same time, and for the same uses, give and grant to certain persons in their grants mentioned, and to such others as the said town should appoint, a large farm, then called a neck of land, situate in Chebacco, in the said Ipswich, with some other lands, the rents of which to be applied to the use of learning in said town as aforesaid; but, as is apprehended, no power was given by the said town, to their trustees, to appoint successors, in that trust, for receiving and applying the rents, or of ordering and directing the affairs of the school in said town, as in the first-mentioned case is provided; from which difference in the original constitution of those grants, which were all designed for one and the same use, disputes have heretofore arisen between the said town and the said feoffees; and also some doubts have arisen whether, by the constitution of those grants as aforesaid, it is in the power, either of the said town or feoffees, to compel the payment of the rents of said farm and other lands granted by said town, as before mentioned; and whereas, for the removal of the aforesaid difficulties, on the joint application of both said town and the then feoffees, this court did, in the twenty-ninth year of his late majesty King George the Second, by one act then passed, intituled "An Act for regulating the grammar school in Ipswich, and for incorporating certain persons to manage and direct the same," empower the then surviving feoffees, with three successors, together with part of the selectmen of said town, for the time being, as an incorporate body, to manage and direct the affairs of said school for ten years then next coming, in manner as in said act is expressed, which ten years will expire on the first day of March next; and whereas it has been found by experience that the said act has been of great advantage to the interest of learning in said town, and that all doubts and disputes aforementioned, from the passing of said act, have ceased, and the parties concerned have desired the continuance of the aid of this court touching the premisses; wherefore,—

And for the continuance of the succession of the aforesaid committee or feoffees,—

Be it further enacted,

[SECT. 2.] That if either the said John Choate, Samuel Rogers, Aaron Potter or Francis Choate, shall decease, or move out of the said town of Ipswich, or otherwise become incapable or unfit to discharge said trust, or unreasonably neglect to do it, it shall and may be lawful for the surviving and qualified remainder of those four persons, from time to time, to appoint some other suitable and qualified person or persons in his or their room so deceasing, removing or otherwise unqualified, or neglecting his or their duty as aforesaid; which power of appointment shall descend to those so appointed, so as always to have four of said feoffees constituted in this way, and no more; no person at
